International
Writing Program

2020 SESSION: 4-18 JULY

Students from all disciplines - the arts, humanities, sciences, and everything in between - are welcome to apply! This program is free for accepted applicants, and will focus on creative writing and the power of narrative. Attendees take part in master classes in the craft of writing, in collaborative workshops focused on their creative work, and in activities designed to forge new lines of understanding and shared purpose among its community of writers. The Summer Institute is an opportunity to see writing as a form of action - a personally-empowering skill that can be employed for social change.
